ADDITIONAL REMARKS

(Use this sheet for inserting any additional information that is of historical value)

Corporal James Edward Connelly, should by right be placed on the Gold Star List, having contracted the ailments which resulted in his death while in service at training camps. He came home with health impaired, and resumed employment at the Knitting Mills for a few weeks but resigned and sought for less confining employment, which he found at the Square Deal garage as a repair man. He broke down completely in March, and was under treatment from that time on until about the first of August when he was admitted to Irene Byron Hospital, this county, where he died, September 29th, 1919, of tubercular complications.

He was thirty-one years of age, and had been employed from the age of fourteen at the Knitting Mills, until leaving Fort Wayne for the training camp. A wife and seven years old daughter have removed from Fort Wayne, the wife having remarried, November, 1919, John Welty, of Kendallville, Indiana. Connelly's nearest relatives are therefore his brother, whose address is given.

was with the 3rd Army of Occupation.
Our march to Germany started at Harrison
Dept Ardennes, France, and terminated at Neuenahr Germany. During this march we were reviewed by Pres.
Poincare of France at Montmedy on Nov. 20, 1918.

Our division was the only American organization in Gen. Gouraud's Army which checked the greatest enemy offensive. namely the attempt to break through to Paris on July 15-16th. 1918

ADDITIONAL REMARKS

(Use this sheet for inserting any additional information that is of historical value)

Private Cramer, still in the very early twenties, has been in the army for more than six years. Allen County <sup>[sic]</sup> has many more boys in both Navy and Army who served all through the war, and are still in service.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cramer live in New Haven, Indiana.

The First Division received a letter (officially published) from General Pershing, containing high praise of the Division for its bravery and hard work.
